10. STUDY PERIOD: Purchaser shall have _____ days from the date this Contract is executed by both Purchaser and Seller to determine, through engineering and feasibility studies, whether Purchaser's plan of development of the Property is practical. Purchaser shall contract for such studies within ten days from the date of execution, and deliver to Seller and Listing Company copies of the letter(s) ordering the studies, said letter(s) stipulating that true copies of all studies are to be sent to Seller or Listing Company, simultaneously with delivery to Purchaser. If within such study period Purchaser notifies Seller or Listing Company, in writing, that Purchaser's plan, in Purchaser's sole judgment, is not practical, Purchaser may terminate this Contract and receive a refund of the Deposit and the parties shall have no further liability or obligations hereunder, except as set forth herein. Time shall be of the essence of this provision.
11. SOIL STUDY: This Contract is contingent for _____ days from date of execution of this Contract by both Purchaser and Seller to allow _____ at its expense to obtain a soil study and/or percolation test, which shall lawfully allow for the erection and use of _____ on the Property. 12. ACCESS: Purchaser and Purchaser's agents and engineers shall have the right to enter onto the Property at all reasonable times prior to settlement for purposes of engineering, surveying, title or such other work as is permitted under this Contract, so long as such studies do not result in a permanent change in the character or topography of the Property. Purchaser shall not interfere with Seller's use of the Property, and Purchaser, at Purchaser's expense, shall promptly restore the Property to its prior condition upon completion of Purchaser's studies or work. Purchaser shall keep the Property free and clear from all liens resulting from its work, studies, investigations or other activities performed pursuant to this Contract and shall indemnify and hold Seller harmless against any loss or liability to person or property resulting from Purchaser's presence or activities on the Property. be by special warranty deed), free of all encumbrances, tenancies, and liens (for taxes and otherwise), but subject to such restrictive covenants and utility easements of record which do not materially and adversely affect the use of the Property for Purchaser's intended purposes or render the title unmarketable. If the Property does not abut a public road, title to the Property must include a recorded easement providing adequate access thereto. In the event this sale is subject to a financing contingency under paragraph 3(a) or 3(b), the access to a public road must be acceptable to each lender. If the examination reveals a title defect of a character that can be remedied by legal action or otherwise within a reasonable time, then Seller, at Seller's expense, shall promptly take such action as is necessary to cure such defect. If the defect is not cured within 60 days after Seller receives notice of the defect, then Purchaser shall have the right to (i) terminate this Contract, in which event the Deposit shall be returned to Purchaser, and Purchaser and Seller shall have no further obligations hereunder, or (ii) waive the defect and proceed to settlement with no adjustment to the Purchase Price. If Seller has agreed to cure such defect, the parties agree that the settlement date prescribed in paragraph 7 shall be extended as necessary to enable Seller to cure such title defect, but not for more than 60 days unless agreed by the parties.

15. PROPERTY OWNERS' ASSOCIATION DISCLOSURE: Seller represents that the Property is _____ or is not _____ located within a development which is subject to the Virginia Property Owners' Association Act, Section 55-508 et seq. of the Code of Virginia (the "Act"). The information in the disclosure packet shall be current as of a date specified on the disclosure packet. Purchaser may cancel this Contract (i) within three (3) days after the date of the Contract, if Purchaser received the disclosure packet (or notice that the packet will not be available) on or before the date Purchaser executed this Contract; (ii) three days after receiving the association disclosure packet or being notified that the association disclosure packet will not be available, if the packet or such notice is hand delivered; or (iii) within six (6) days after postmark date if the packet or notice that the packet will not be available is sent to Purchaser by United States mail. Purchaser may cancel this Contract at any time prior to settlement if Purchaser has not received the association disclosure packet or notice that the packet will not be available. Written notice of cancellation shall be hand delivered or sent by United States mail, return receipt requested, to Seller. Purchaser's right to receive the association disclosure packet and the right to cancel this Contract are waived exclusively if not exercised before settlement. Purchaser may be required to pay a fee for such update.

If labor or materials have been furnished during the statutory period, Seller shall deliver to Purchaser an affidavit signed by Seller and the person(s) furnishing the labor or materials that the costs thereof have been paid.
17. NON-BINDING MEDIATION: In an effort to avoid the expense and delay of litigation, the parties agree to submit any disputes or claims arising out of this Contract, including those involving the Listing Company or the Selling Company, to mediation prior to instituting litigation. Such mediation will be non-binding, that is, no party will be obligated to enter into any settlement arising out of mediation unless that settlement is satisfactory to that party. Any settlement the parties enter into will be binding, but if the parties are not able to reach agreement on a settlement, they may resort to arbitration or litigation as if the mediation had never taken place. The mediation will be provided by the local REALTOR® Association, if it provides such services, or by another mutually agreeable mediator or mediation service in the area. This agreement to mediate does not apply to foreclosure, unlawful detainer (eviction), mechanics lien, probate, or license law actions. Judicial actions to provide provisional remedies (such as injunctions and filings to enable public notice of pending disputes) are not violations of the obligation to mediate and do not waive the right to mediate.

Payment of a real estate broker's fee as the result of a transaction relating to the property which occurs subsequent to a default under this Contract shall not relieve the defaulting party of liability for the fee of Listing Company in this transaction and for any damages and expenses incurred by the non-defaulting party, Listing Company and Selling Company in connection with this transaction. In any action brought by Seller, Purchaser, Listing Company or Selling Company under this Contract or growing out of the transactions contemplated herein, the prevailing party in such action shall be entitled to receive from the non-prevailing party or parties, jointly and severally, in addition to any other damages or awards, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs expended or incurred in prosecuting or defending such action.
